JOB OPENINGS
Robotics Automation
Assembly Technician

Job Description
At Quest Industrial you will be challenged to do your best on a daily basis. As a Robotics Automation Assembly Technician you will utilize numerous machine shop skills which include: TIG/MIG welding, CNC laser table, lathe milling, etc.

Qualifications
- Applicant must possess common sense and have a desire to work and learn.
- Applicant must have a basic understanding of tools and motorized equipment.
- Applicant must be willing to work in a fast-paced environment for long periods.
- Previous welding experience is a plus.
- Previous CNC operation is a plus.

Primary Location: Monroe, Wisconsin

Schedule: Full-time, some travel is expected

Salary: Based on Experience

Benefits: Quest offers a competitive compensation and benefits that include: Medical, Dental and Prescription Insurance, Paid Vacation, Paid Holidays and a Bonus Package.

Company Description: Quest Industrial is a growing Robotic Automation firm. Quest specializes in designing, constructing and installing handling equipment for the food, plastics and metals industries. Our team promotes a family-like atmosphere where creative thinking and continuous learning are embraced. To learn more about Quest Industrial go to: www.got-bot.com.

Application Process
Please send your resume and three references to:
employment@questindustrial.com